Red Cross Drive Half Way To Top; Time Extended

Voluntoeers in Campbell have collected over half of the quota for this area revealed Henry Jewell, Red Cross chairman today. Solicitors have braved bad weather and storms to visit homes and business establishments throughout Campbell since February 28 to obtain contributions.

The quota, just released by Jewell today, is $2000 for Campbell. Already canvassers have reported over $1200 in contributions.

"I'm sure we'll reach and even surpass our quota by March 21," Jewel said. "Anyone who isn't contacted by a volunteer canvasser by the 21st can mail his contribution to the Campbell Water company, official headquarters for the drive."

The response on the part of businessmen in downtown Campbell has been especially good reported canvasser Mrs. E. Lanphear. Their contributions have been generous and their attitude completely friendly, she asserted. Mrs. Lanphear has just about completed her round in the downtown areas, Jewell said.

Residents in Campbell who are not home when the Red Cross representatoive calls will be left a notice and envelope for their contributions. They are to be mailed to the water company, said Jewell.

"If the weather clears up we'll be over the top by March 21," remarked the chairman.

NOT SO HOT!

Campbell is proud of its school grounds. So are the students who attend the various schools.

SPOTLIGHTING SPORTS

By MARV SCARPER

Basketball came to a dismal close for the Campbell Buccaneers as they dropped a doubleheader to the Mt. View Eagles Friday. The varsity took its worst beating of the season by a score of 50-28. The Bucs could not stop the accurate shooting of Ron Holley who sank 16 points to claim high point honors. Campbell's Bob Jordon tallied eight and Harold Layman accounted for five points to lead the Buccaneers.

This was a sad ending for the Buc varsity. The Buc's trailed by eight points at half time but were unable to keep pace with the Eagles in the second half.

In the 130 contest the Bucs went down to their seventh defeat in league play by a score of 48-26. Del Ambler tallied 13 points for high honors. Jay Martin and Ned O'Hara each added five for second honors.

The basketball season was a fairly gloomy one for the Buc varsity as the Buccaneers won seven games against 14 defeats. Included in those defeats is the 1-0 forfeit to Los Gatos. The varsity was much more successful at home than on the road. The Bucs won six and lost five at home while they won once and lost nine away from home. The varsity ended up in seventh place in SCVAL standings with three wins and five losses. High scorer for the varsity was Bob Jordon with 100 points in 21 games. He was followed by Hal Layman who netted 95 points in 20 games.

The 130 squad finished with a four win and 16 games lost. The Baby Bucs won three and lost eight at home while they won one and lost eight away from home. The Bucs had a SCVAL record of one win against seven losses and ended up in eighth place, one game out of the cellar spot which was "won" by Gilroy.

High man for the 130's was Del Ambler who accumulated 141 points in 20 games. Saul Estrada accounted for 77 points in 17 games to finish second. Del Ambler also led both teams in season scoring and SCVAL scoring.

When basketball season ends there comes the time when sports writers all over the nation pull out their figures, statistics, and so on in order to name the all country, all league, all American squads. At this time we will stick our neck out, give ourselves a pat on the back, and name the all-SCVAL varsity first team. (The pat on the back is to give this party the necessary self-assurance that goes along with trying to pick an all-star team.)

The all-SCVAL team for 1948-49: forward, Jerry Fredericks, Bob Poen; center Stan Wacholz; guards Glen Wallin and Joe Sankene.

Fredericks received his berth on his scoring ability. Bob Poen moved over to forward from center because he was of much more value as a scorer than as a defensive man. Stan Wacholz was in our estimation the best all around player in the league and is a repeater from last year's all-SCVAL Mercury-Herald squad. Wallin and Sankene receive their nominations for their smooth ball handling and their good defensive ball playing.

In our opinion this aggregation would be one of the best of teams.

What's News IN MOORPARK

Mrs. Yvonne Whitfields first grade class and Mrs. Juanita Robbins second grade class tied for having the most mothers present at the PTA meeting Tuesday afternoon. They will share the time for having the PTA plant in their rooms. Both are afternoon teachers.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Aurle and Mrs. Prindiville at the teacher's meeting Wednesday morning. The teachers' room was attractively decorated with spring blossoms and potted plants. Teachers in charge of the meetings each week will also decorate the room for that week.

Isn't it fun trying to compete with the hammers and saws of the carpenters outside the windows, say the teachers and pupils in the school. And there is the rhythm band in the next room, too. "Spring is bursting out all over" it seems, marbles and all.

Moorpark had a visit by several members of Mr. Art Tindall's eighth grade class from Campbell last Wednesday afternoon. They talked to the classes on the importance of safety in the home. Their talks were a continuation of a visit by a similar group two weeks previous. They were well received and stirred up a lively interest on the subject by the pupils in the classes.

The guest speakers were Mike Devitt, Pat Laundrie, Carol Knudtsen, Bill Rogers, Donna Tuttle and Roger Trauzen. They emphasized safety on stairs, rugs or slick floors and with kitchen and eating utensils, kites in wet weather and to leave garden rakes with the points down.

The Beverly-Burbank Lions club is sponsoring a community whist party April 1 to raise funds for a giant Easter egg hunt for the children of the Moorpark, Burbank and Luxol schools. The whist party will be held simultaneously in the three schools and in the homes of many of the Lions club members, according to Moorpark Principal Ben Mabie, Lions member. There will be three cash door prizes for the lucky ticket holders. Tickets for the big community party may be obtained at the Moorpark school office.

The Moorpark Men's club will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school. On the program will be political discussions, plans for a Sunday box social and a baseball game and a movie entitled "The Diamond Knot." Refreshments will be served.

"Come and be a member of this live organization," is the request of E. B. Mortensen, president.

Ruth Anne Scarborough, sixth grade, reporting:

Our new school building will have four classrooms. There are seven workmen working on it. There will be two kindergartens and two first grades. The contractor is G. J. Lauer and the foreman is Ray G. Shaw. The building will be finished in about three months if it does not rain. Right now the workmen have the foundation done. They are all digging ditches and getting ready to pour cement. They have fences around the building to keep the children out. They have men sawing, digging and hammering. They are all working very hard. It is terribly muddy over there now because of the rain.

Lloyd Meyers, sixth grade, reporting:

The sixth grade, morning sectioin, is studying South America in social studies. We are having a contest to see which side can bring the most information about this country. The sides are Reds and Blues. The Blues beat the Reds by five points. The score was Blues, 99, Reds 94.

Some of the information for Blues included coffee, rubber, maps, pictures and articles from papers and books.

Local High School Quintet Closes Casaba Season With 7-14 Record; Coach Perry To Lose Four Guards

The Bucs of Campbell High were sent down to defeat in their last basketball game of the season last Friday night at the Mt. View gym. Final score was 50-28. The local high school quintet, coached by Bill Perry, finished the season with a 7-14 win-loss standing.

In league competition the Red and White took three victories while losses totaled five. One of the games in the league, with the Los Gatos five, was forfeited to that team although the local boys won the contest.

"The emphasis next year will be on guards," Perry stated. "We're losing two first string guards by graduation. Both Bob Jordon and Captain Ron Cantoni will leave the squad. In addition we'll lose Dan Forrest and Dick Yaeger, both guards."

"We'll be getting some good material from the 130 team next year," the coach said. "Moving up will be Jay Martin and Saul Estrada. So we're not in too bad condition for the -949-50 season."

However, the coach stated that the league play next year will be a tough struggle with teams like champion Fremont losing only one player.

"What we need are ballhandlers," the coach said. "That was our weak point this year."

Yes – That's Right! A Parcel Post Sale

Have you heard of a Parcel Post sale? Well, neither have most of us, but there's going to be one in conjunction with the ham dinner which the ladies of the Methodist church are sponsoring March 24.

The fun starts after you find out what it is all about and that can only be done by attending the dinner.

The parcels are coming in fast and they are various shapes and sizes—and rattle, too. It's almost like Christmas time.

Remember that date, March 24, Methodist church, Campbell. Plan to wear your best and be there for the Parcel Post sale.

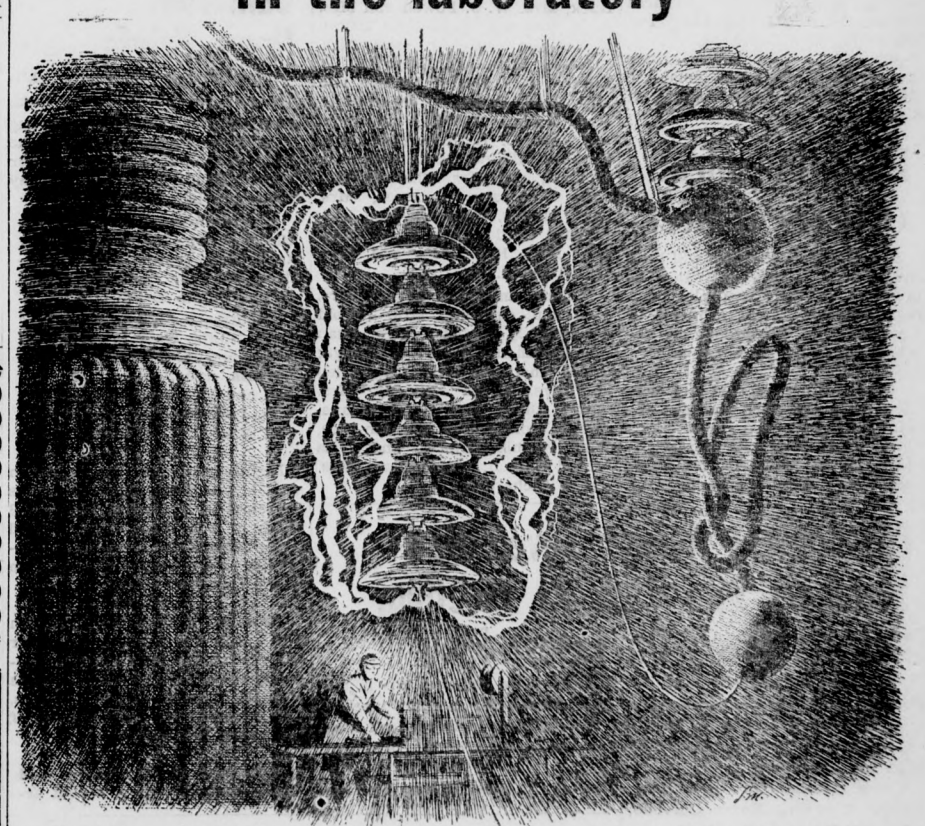
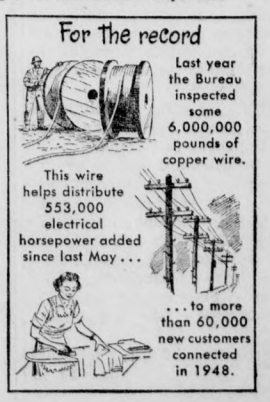
to help keep your electric bill low...
P.G. and E. makes lightning in the laboratory



The sharp crack of a lightning bolt may seem out of place in a lab... but it's one of the many ways P. G. and E.'s Bureau of Tests and Inspection helps keep your electric bills among the lowest in the nation. Technicians give this "trial by lightning" to power-line insulators to make sure they won't cause costly breakdowns. High voltages are built up on one side of an insulator until the electricity arcs around it through the air...a miniature lightning flash. If the insulator "punctures" or if the flash comes too soon at too low a voltage, the insulator is rejected.

The life of power poles depends on rot preventives below ground. P. G. and E. tests these, too... along with thousands of other things such as the breaking strength of cross-arms and the conducting efficiency of the wire they support.

Lower electric bills and dependable service are the result of these and other tests. They all add up to longer lasting, harder working, more economical materials in P. G. and E.'s generating plants and transmission lines.



For the record
Last year the Bureau inspected some 6,000,000 pounds of copper wire.
This wire helps distribute 553,000 electrical horsepower added since last May...
...to more than 60,000 new customers connected in 1948.

Work never stops on our power-building program

COME ONE, COME ALL!

Scout Circus Will Hit San Jose April 2 With Campbell Entries

Come one, come all—it's circus time! All of the noise, the glamor, and the excitement of the "big top" will reign when the Scout Circus opens in San Jose for two days. April 1-2.

Five Scout troops and three cub packs from Campbell will participate in this big event to be held in the Civic auditorium. Troops 9, 31, 32, 34, 36 and Packs 9, 10, and 19 will throw off all conventions and become, for two glorious days, their most desired ambition — to be a performer in a circus.

But this is no ordinary circus. For not only will observers see the boys perform in everything from comedy routines to daring feats, but they will be helping, at the same time, to raise funds for their troop to give their community the benefit of scouting activities.

"By purchasing tickets from local scout sponsoring organizations you can help your favorite scout or cub have recognition for his part in earning funds for the troop or pack treasury," say Scout headquarters. Troop earnings will be a proportionate share of the profits from the performances based upon the number of tickets sold by the unit.

And don't forget. By purchasing a ticket to the Scout Circus you can spend an entertaining evening viewnig a circus from an individual armchair—a unique feature of this "big top."

Auxiliary Women To Fete Ward 17 On March 17

Palo Alto patients in ward 17 of the Palo Alto Veteran's hospital will be the party guests of members of the Campbell American Legion Auxiliary post 596 Tuesday, March 15, at the hospital. The women will travel to the hospital to entertain the veterans there.

At a short meeting held Wednesday in the IOOF hall, members of the auxiliary decided to give $10 to the new Mayfair auxiliary unit. It is a custom to give a starting unit something to help them along. The money will be used for a banner. Mrs. Edith Morley presided at the meeting.

After the business session the women adjourned to attend the Mayfair unit meeting held at the Pala school. Members who attended the meeting included Mesdames Edith Morley, Ida Kaber, Clara Fagalde, Errah Peck, Mary Hummell, Lorraine Barrett, Florence Myring, Louise Fairchild, Frances Clever, Henrietta Smith, Pat Burch and Eva Coupland.

All women who plan to attend the veterans' party are asked to meet at the IOOF hall Tuesday at 6 p.m.

Elects President, Officers At Meet

Mrs. George Robertson will head the coming year's activities as president of the Campbell Union high school PTA as a result of elections held Wednesday at the school. Retiring president is Mrs. James Gleed.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Glen Campbell and Mrs. G. K. Schrader, vice presidents; Mrs. J. B. Cantoni, secretary; Mrs. David Saunders, financial secretary; Mrs. Laurance Hill, treasurer; Laurance Hill, auditor; Mrs. Malcolm Blue historian and Mrs. Gleed, parliamentarian.

Delegates to the annual district meeting to be held in Sacramento next month were named and drama department students presented a short play "Date Time."

PTA women voted $50 towards the summer youth fund for high school.

Dr. Robert Bush, placement director at Stanford university, spoke on UNESCO, outlining five dominant points of the program: reconstruction, communications, education, cultural exchange and human relations.

Mrs. W. L. Powell was chairman of the day, while Mrs. Gleed presided. Installation of new officers will be April 13.

Footlighters Accept Seven New Members Into Club At Meeting; Reports Given On Latest Play

Seven new members were voted into active membership in the Footlighters, Campbell drama group, at the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday, March 8, in Mrs. Ida Price's barn on Dry Creek road. Vice-president Art Tindall presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Ida Levenberg.

New members are Lew Bass, Sterling Antisdel, Kathy Kollmer, Lucille Corvello, Norm Corvello, Al Mauseth and Mary Jones.

The play "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" which was presented in conjunction with Campbell's Old Settlers' Day was discussed. Reports were heard from the following play committees: properties, costumes, publicity, set, lighting, makeup, sound effects. An incomplete financial report was made as bills are still being presented.

Members of the Footlighters voted to donate $5 to the local Red Cross drive in Campbell.

The drama members are again working on a new play. This one will be a one-act play to be put on in the high school auditorium in conjunction with Public School week, and the local schools. Director Dean Chamberlin will soon have his cast for selected and rehearsals will begin immediately.

Next meeting of the Footlighters is scheduled for April 12 in Mrs. Prices barn.

Four members of the St. Lucys Evening guild drove to San Francisco Tuesday to hear the second of a two-day conference sponsored by National Catholic Conference on Family Life. The discussions were held at the Hotel St. Francis.

Campbell women who attended the conference were Mrs. L. Dardanelli, Mrs. G. Albo, Mrs. A. Raffanti and Mrs. P. Spragia.

In an address given before delegates to the Conference, Reverend Thomas Hanely, O.S.B., PhD., stated that Catholic scholars are reconsidering the re-evaluating their position relative to the purposes of marriage.

He went on to say traditional doctrinal emphasis upon procreation as the primary objective of matrimony is undergoing change in the face of modern advances in ethics, phychology and biology. The new concept among some schools of Catholic thought is that the benefits of marriage to the husband and wife are of equal importance, if not superior, to the improvement of the race through the procreation and education of children.

Father Hanley is professor of ethics at St. Martin's college at Olympia, Wash. He spoke before a panel of clerics considering the "Theology of Marriage."

"Which Comes First? Married Love or Parenthood?" was the topic of one panel. Two other panels were held at the morning session of the conference. One was devoted to "Parent Education," while the second discussed the "Diocesan Activity Program."

Moorpark PTA Elects Mrs. Andres To Head Group

Mrs. Eugene C. Andres Jr. was elected president of the Moorpark PTA at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at the school. She will take the gavel from Mrs. Robert McArdle, past president.

Other officers elected at the meeting were Mrs. Hugh Boyle, vice president; Mrs. S. C. Ralston, secretary; Mrs. Angelo Popangna, treasurer; Miss Wilma Harris, historian; and Mrs. Helen Pederson, auditor.

The purpose of teaching aids was the topic of guest speaker Mrs. Ruth Stuart, co-ordinator of the Campbell Union Elementary school district. In her talk Mrs. Stuart stated that a child remembers 10 per cent of what he reads, 30 per cent of what he hears, and 50 per cent of what he hears, sees and takes part in.

Mrs. Bessie Porter, teacher at the county hospital for the Campbell elementary district, was introduced at the meeting.

It was announced that the PTA will sponsor a card party April 29 at the school. The funds raised will be used to purchase new visual and audio aids.

New officers wil be installed at the next regular meeting April 12. Mrs. McArdell presided at the Tuesday meeting.

Beverlee Jensen To Preside During Bethel 174 Rites

Miss Beverlee Jensen, honored queen, will preside when Bethel 174 of the International Order of Job's Daughters holds their initiation and regular meeting Saturday in the IOOF hall at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Virginia Currie and Mrs. Frank Coombs, guardian and associate guardian, will be introduced. All parents or persons having proper Masonic afiliation are invited to attend the meeting.

Following the initiation and meeting the line officers will present a short skit. Those taking part are: Beverlee Jensen, honored queen; Patti Saunders, senior princess; Donna Horn, junior princess; Jeanne Currie guide; and Janet Coombs, marshal.

The decorations and refreshments will carry out the St. Patrick's Day theme. Those on the committees are Misses Mary Lou Cline, Katharine Fuller, Pat Hitchman, Mona Barlok, Mary Ann Cole, Janet Coombs and Patti Saunders.

Over 90 boys turned out for preliminary workouts for the Campbell Union high school tract teams which open their season soon. Coach for the trackmen is Bill Perry.

Ever notice how much smaller a man looks when you're in a position to look down on him instead of up at him?

March 16—Johns Jewelry starts their fourth year of service to Campbell and the surrounding territory. We are proud of our achievements. They represent a lot of blood, sweat and tears. We shall continue our policy of offering only high grade jewelry, watches and clocks, to recommend and do your repair work in a manner that would be satisfactory to us, too.

CORRECT EXPOSURE

Of all problems met by photographers, both amateur and professional, perhaps the most common is the necessity of accurately estimating the light intensity in terms of photographic nomenclature. If the exposure is incorrect, a well composed shot is lost.

Determining the correct exposure can be fairly simple but, first, let's find out what happens when you click the shutter on your camera. The first consideration is the light source, which if we are outdoors, will be the sun. The brilliant rays of the sun are reflected from the earth's surface and can be measured. This illumination is broadly referred to as BRIGHTNESS. But in order to make use of this brightness, the rays must be concentrated to a relatively small area. This is the job of the lens. The light is funneled through the lens and comes to a point at the center of the lens elements. From this point the light is carried on towards the back of the camera in a reverse coned path and ending at the plane of film.

Controlling the length of time this light is allowed to expose the film is a device called the shutter. The quantity of light is also controlled by the diaphragm. These two "gadgets," the shutter controlling duration of light, and the diaphragm controlling the amount of light, are the key factors in correct exposure.

That is as far as the mechanical devices operate. It becomes the perplexing problem of the photographer to use them in correct relation to the scene. It being obvious that some scenes reflect more light than others, yet it must be made clear that the same amount of light falling on a sandy area, such as the beach has considerably greater brightness than the light reflected from a grassy surface. This means that there would be different exposures in each case even though the light source is the same.

This phenomenon is light intensity, broken down into several parts: intensity of source, intensity of reflected light as controlled by the subject and intensity of light as influenced by distance.

Exposure, then, is dependent upon the intensity of reflected light. To find the correct exposure for a given scene, it becomes necessary to have a means of measuring this light. Through trial and error, a fairly accurate gauge can be acquired by judgment. At best this method is vexing and troublesome since human error can too often ruin a good shot.

Correct exposure is an extensive subject which will be continued in next wek's column.

In the meantime, if you have a photo problem, drop a note to me care of the Campbell Press.

Dale Carnegie

Author of "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE"

LEARNING TO LIVE

LUCILE BLAKE, whom I have known many years, told me she had to tremble on the edge of tragedy and weep with bitterness and despair before she learned how to live.

Nine years ago she got the shock of her life. She had been living in a whirl—studying music at the University of Arizona, conducting a speech clinic in the town and teaching a class in music appreciation at the ranch where she lived. In addition to all this, she was in a gay social whirl—riding, dancing, picnicking. Then one day she collapsed. The doctor told her she would have to be absolutely inactive for at least a year, and that she would have to spend that inactivity actually in bed—a complete rest.

D. Carnegie

This sudden change from the life she desired affected her deeply. She went to bed, but she was rebellious, even bitter. Why did this have to happen to her?

One day an artist-friend called on her. He said, "You think now that spending a year in bed will be a tragedy. You won't think so at the end of the year, for you will have a chance to grow spiritually and mentally."

After this friend had gone, Lucile thought over what he had said, thought about it day after day. Then she heard a radio commentator say, "You can express only what is in your own consciousness." That, too, gave her food for thought.

So she resolved to think only the thoughts she wanted to live by—happy, joyous thoughts, thoughts of happiness and health. This wasn't easy at first, but she stuck to it. She enumerated her blessings—a lovely young daughter, good eyesight, time for reading and any number of good friends who lightened the hours for her.

The result? Well, that year in bed passed swiftly. After she was able to get about again and resume normal activities, she was a made-over person. For nine years she has been grateful for having had that year in which to learn how to live. The habit of counting her blessings is still with her, one of her most prized possessions, and she says she is truly ashamed that she never really learned how to live until she thought she was going to die.

27 Youths Turn Out At School To Elect Nelson President Of New San Tomas 4-H Group

George Nelson, San Tomas 4-H, was elected to head the newly-formed club for the San Tomas district at a meeting held Friday in the local grammar school. The San Tomas group makes the 20th local 4-H club in the county.

Other officers elected by the 15 boys and 12 girls who attended the meeting include Orville Cohee, vice-president, and Linda Lagrande, secretary. A treasurer and a reporter will be selected at the next meeting April 8 at the San Tomas school.

The boys and girls enrolled in both agricultural and home making projects. Poultry and gardening were the two most popular agricultural projects, while more girls enrolled in the clothing projects than all other projects combined.

Adult leaders volunteering to get the club started are Ralph Nelson and Mrs. Dale Lloyd. Additional leaders will be secured as the club becomes better organized and enlarges.

New Plymouth on Display

Plymouth's new special deluxe is featured above. Brilliant new styling is combined with outstanding riding comfort, increased roominess, and sweeping mechanical improvements in the new line of Plymouth automobiles.

Completely redesigned, the new Plymouth has a longer wheelbase for a better ride and more road stability, but less front and rear overhang for easier parking and garaging. While the silhouette has been lowered and the width decreased, there is more head and leg room and seats are wider. Typical of Plymouth's many refinements is the ignition-starter combination, with which a turn of the key starts the engine.

The new Plymouths are sleek in appearance. New rear-end styling provides a graceful balance with the horizontal grille lines which emphasize the broadness of the front. Fenders which blend perfectly into body lines are nevertheless separate and detachable, thus avoiding sheet metal panels so costly to repair or replace.

The new Plymouth line includes nine distinct automobiles. Special deluxe and deluxe types are on a 118-inch wheelbase, one inch longer than last year's. Special deluxe models are: four-door sedan, club coupe, convertible club coupe and station wagon. In the deluxe group are the four-door sedan and the club coupe. In addition, Plymouth will build three deluxe models on a brand new 111-inch wheelbase, a two-door sedan, a three-passenger coupe, and a new body type, the Suburban.

The 97-horsepower engine has improved performance and efficiency with a new design cylinder head which increases compression ratio to 7 to 1. A new chrome plated compression piston ring reduces cylinder wear and provides greater protection during the break-in period. There are improved oil rings for greater oil economy, while a newly-designed intake manifold induces quicker, smoother engine warm-up and produces faster throttle response.

Body styling which produces greater passenger room without excessive bulk also increases visibility. V-type windshields have 37 percent more area and provide excellent vision without distortion. Windshield wipers clear 61.5 percent greater area and the rear window is 35.4 percent larger.
